LUCY MUSIC

NOVEMBER SONGS

THE ORCHESTRA FROM THE EAST

1 You Could Be Wrong
2 In My Own Time
3 Summer Of Love '67 Part 1
4 Summer Of Love '67 Part 2
5 Good Rocking (Is What We Do)
6 Passchendaele
7 Flanders Fields
8 Prisoner Of Love
9 Carol
10 A Matter Of Consequence

Dedicated to Carol Davis
Very much loved and missed.

Carol

I'm looking for
The little blue car
Around the corner
Always late.
I want to see you
On the other side
No-one is there
An empty space.
Life is so unfair
To take you away
I just want to see you again
I want to say
How you doing?
How you doing today?
There are no words
To express how I feel
Some people say you got to pray,
Well I was never
One for all that.
That is until now
So, Oh God
Why did you take her away?
I just want to see you again
I want to say
Hey, hey,
How you doing today?

Recorded 2015 at
The Bassics Recording Company,
Sunderland, England.

Produced and written by
John E Farmer

Recorded on Tascam Digital and Analogue Recorders.

The Orchestra From The East uses:
Roland Keyboards;
Fender, Gretsch, Gibson guitars;
Alembic, Danelectro, Epiphone, Fender Bass Guitars;
And Roland, Line6, Alesis, Joe Meek, Robert Keeley Processors.

Also available from
The Orchestra From The East:

Now As Then; Two Tone Zodiac; Garage Trash.

Go to website www.johnefarmer.com
All downloads are free.

© Lucy Music 2016

BASSICS 019

Cover Design: Off The Wall

NOVEMBER SONGS

1 You Could Be Wrong
2 In My Own Time
3 Summer Of Love '67 Part 1
4 Summer Of Love '67 Part 2
5 Good Rocking (Is What We Do)
6 Passchendaele
7 Flanders Fields
8 Prisoner Of Love
9 Carol
10 A Matter Of Consequence

© Lucy Music
BASSICS 019

All rights of the recorded work reserved by the owners.
Unauthorised copying, hiring, broadcasting or public performance prohibited.

COMPACT disc DIGITAL AUDIO

NOVEMBER SONGS THE ORCHESTRA FROM THE EAST BASSICS 019

NOVEMBER SONGS THE ORCHESTRA FROM THE EAST BASSICS 019